

General application information on postgraduate courses in the Art faculty

1. Postgraduate courses available

The following postgraduate courses are available at Burg Giebichenstein University of Art and Design Halle:

- Sculpture
- Ceramics
- Metal
- Jewellery
- Time-based Arts

- Painting
- Graphics
- Textile Arts
- Image Space Object Glass
- Book Art
- Fine Art

Standard course duration: 2 years (4 semesters)

Qualification: A transcript is awarded after successful completion of the final examination

2. Admission requirements

- Degree from an art university or from a course that is comparable to those at the Burg at another university or third-level institution

3. Aim and duration of these courses

The postgraduate courses in the Art faculty aim to provide a deeper, broader artistic and design qualification as a follow-on to the professional qualifications of the 'Diplom' degree courses in art offered by universities and other third-level colleges. At the core of these postgraduate courses are either more detailed aspects of a given discipline or else multi-disciplinary aspects with the possibility of including elements from the entire spectrum of education and training available at Burg Giebichenstein. Students will acquire new forms of design and expression and engage in conceptual artistic, design and academic experiments.

The postgraduate courses generally take four semesters, including the final examination.

4. Application deadlines

15 June for the following winter semester

31 December for the following summer semester

The application form can be downloaded from <http://www.burg-halle.de/en/art/fine-arts/>.

Students are entitled to submit their own applications for the postgraduate course. Applicants may suggest a university professor or lecturer of their choice as a mentor.

Information on 'Meisterschüler (Master Student)' courses

Outstanding students in the Art faculty can undertake a course of study that leads to the title of 'Meisterschüler (Master Student)', which is awarded by a professor at the university in consultation with the Art faculty council.

This course is conducted in the form of a postgraduate course. So-called 'Meisterschüler (Master Students)' receive a certificate for this title and, once they have presented their final project, an official transcript.