

3d OP
Design als Gegenstand

Zeitgenössische Positionen
im Design

Open Structures

OpenStructures, initiated by Christiane Högner and Thomas Lomé is an exploration on open modular construction where anyone designs for everyone on the basis of one shared grid. OS generates parts that are widely interchangeable, objects that allow infinite adaption and repair, and a more sustainably built environment.